

INTRODUCTION

1.1 PROJECT DETAILS

The TaskTracker website serves as a centralized platform where admin can create project and its task, assign project task to employee and track tasks and projects. This website eliminates the need for manual tracking and communication method, reducing errors and ensuring real time updates. one of the key advantages of an TaskTracker website track task progress and provide real time updates. employee of organization can update the status of their given tasks, mark them as completed. The website is designed to handle the multiple projects at a time and the task of projects are given to the employees. it is very easy to handle and it is very simple.

Administrator can easily create projects, tasks of projects and assign them to specific team members, set ending date for completing task.

In this website there are mainly two users are available.

(1) Administrator

(2) Employee

Overall, the TaskTracker website simplifies task management and improve productivity within organization.

This idea comes from embe.co.in, meistrytask.com and bitrix24.in etc.

1.2 PURPOSE

The main purpose of this TaskTracker website is to provide easy interface to company to handle the multiple projects. Here admin can add project and create project task. After task allocate to the employee. Employee can change status of task.

1.3 SCOPE

The scope of TaskTracker website can vary depending on its intended audience and feature. admin create project easily, assign names, description, due dates and create task of project. admin can get the task progress.

1.4 OBJECTIVES

The main objective is to save the time of company & organization by manage projects online. Provide easy user interface to employee & administrator for task management.