REQUIREMENT OF PROPOSED SYSTEM

4.1 MAIN MODULES OF THE SYSTEM:

There are basically two main modules in the systems.

➢ Admin User
➢ Employee User

4.2 MODULE DESCRIPTION:

There are two modules in this system.

1) Admin User:

- Employees : In this section, the admin can manage employees (A/U/D).

- Projects : In this section, the admin can manage project (A/U/D).see the project progress.

- Tasks : In this section, the admin can manage the project task (A/U/D). see the task progress.

- Allocate Tasks : In this section, the admin allocate the project task to the employee.

- Dashboard : In this section, admin can see total number of employee, total number of projects, total inprogress projects, total number of completed projects.

2) Employee User:

- Dashboard : Here employee see the all number of own task, total number of new task, total number of inprogress task.

- Tasks :

    1. All Task : In this section,employee see the detail of every tasks.

    2. New Task: Employee see new given task and change their status.

    3. Inporgress Task: Employee see inprogress task and change their status.

    4. Completed Task: Employee see completed task.

4.3 FEATURES OF NEW SYSTEM:

- Any number of employee can be add by administrator.
- Employee can login in system and change task status.
- Administrator can add any number of projects.
- Administrator create task of project and allocate them to employee.
- This new system is very user-friendly.
- This whole process of task management is very secure.
- Administrator can see the progress and updates of task and projects.